Gas game gotta buy this. I was kinda disappointed, it looked like a lot of things had improved when I went to buy this. For one, enemy units are just impossible to kill, it's so darn annoying. There's no real strategy to a game in which all of the units get past your defenses long before you can kill them.

The walls were a nice feature. The themes and unit skins were a good idea. Being able to move your units wherever you want was a good move. Defector mode was disappointing though: I expected to defeat an enemy *base* to have them on my team, but it turns out every single unit you kill in this mode is turned. I don't know, there are just a lot of things like that that I didn't enjoy in this game. I don't really get a kick out of it.
